Kathryn is a beautiful, fun-loving and vibrant young woman from Saint Clair Shores, MI. She graduated from MTU with a degree in Electrical Engineering and moved on to Wayne State to pursue her passion in Medicine. She currently works as an Attending Doctor of Dermatology at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit.

In June 2008, Kathryn and her husband Tim received exciting news that they were pregnant...with twins! After only a few days of this news, Kathryn was given devastating news that she had cancer on her tongue – a whirlwind of news and emotion in only one week’s time. Kathryn underwent two invasive tongue surgeries in July that resulted in a significant portion of her tongue and many lymph nodes being removed. She endured increasing pain in her mouth throughout her pregnancy, but in January 2009, was rewarded with the birth of her beautiful and healthy twin miracles, Cora and Quinn.

After their birth, another tumor was found that was causing her pain. Kathryn was able to start aggressive radiation and chemotherapy. The recovery was slow and painful but by Fall 2009, Kathryn felt strong, resumed work, and felt like her family was finally catching a break. She had also passed her board certification in dermatology during her recovery.

The break was short-lived, as doctors discovered that the cancer had metastasized to her lung. In December 2009, doctors removed a portion of her lung and deemed the surgery successful. Now, Kathryn will be starting another stage of chemotherapy. She needs one more miracle.

Kathryn has the strongest will to live. To continue being a mother, a wife, a daughter, a sister, a friend...
